

09.00 - 10.15

OPENING PLENARY: Leading the transition

10.15 - 10.45

Exhibition opening | Coffee break

10.45 - 11.45

1.1.  Developing impactful national cycling strategies	1.2.  CIE: Maximising social benefit and business success in cycle logistics	1.3.  Enabling the disabled cyclist: Removing barriers by changing our point of view	1.4.  The potential of open data for better infrastructure	1.5.  Bringing bike parking to the next level	1.6.  Be the change you want to see
--	--	--	--	---	---

12.00 - 13.00

2.1.  The rise of the cargo bikes: a game changer for European cities	2.2.  WIC: Women in Cycling	2.3.  Steering car traffic in cities	2.4.  Inspiring people: Campaigns for sustainable mobility	2.5.  Transforming urban space for liveable cities	2.6.  Leading the transition in Austria (a session by the Austrian Cycling Embassy)
---	---	--	--	--	---

13.00 - 14.15

Lunch

14.15 - 15.45

3.1.  Gender equality: Closing the gap	3.2.  Germany, how to get from plans to reality faster!?	3.3.  Cycling data: Who collects it, who regulates it, who needs it?	3.4.  Bike sharing as public infrastructure	3.5.  From research to practice: Redefining public space	3.6.  Visualizing a Dutch intersection: An interactive workshop
--	--	--	---	--	---

15.45 - 16.15

Coffee break

16.15 - 17.30

PLENARY 2: Working together towards equitable environments

17.30 - 19.30

Welcome reception

Technical visits - Outdoor sessions

SUBTHEMES:

Strong leadership for action

Redefining public space

Working together towards equitable environments

Creating mobility systems of the future now

Towards climate neutral economies

S4C Academic sessions

09.00 - 10.15

PLENARY 3: Pedalling from the energy crisis towards thriving climate neutral economies

10.15 - 10.45

Coffee break

10.45 - 11.45

 4.1. Learning from each other: The state of the art in capacity building and knowledge transfer	 4.2 Cycling in climate policies: Opportunities and challenges	 4.3 Removing barriers: Challenging ableism	 4.4 From research to practice: Reframing the narrative of cycling	 4.5 Citizen participation in active mobility projects: An immersive experience	 4.6 Cycling tourism: Slower can get us further!
---	--	--	--	---	---

12.00 - 13.00

 5.1 Fiscal and financial incentives for more cycling	 5.2 Lessons from EuroVelo: 25 years of cycling tourism in Europe	 5.3 Cycle-Friendly Employers: Success stories across Europe	 5.4 Get them on the saddle early: Promoting cycling to school	 5.5 How cargo bikes drive change
---	---	--	--	--	--

13.00 - 14.15

Lunch

14.15 - 15.45

 6.1 Initiating change through tactical urbanism	 6.2 The bike's potential to fight transport poverty and social exclusion	 6.3 Inside Germany: From car to cycling nation?	 6.4 From research to practice: Innovative transport data models integrating cycling	 6.5 Working together: Proven governance and cooperation models	 6.6 Global initiatives for more cycling
---	---	--	--	---	---

15.45 - 16.15

Coffee break

18.00 - 19.00

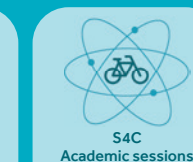

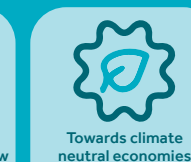

Bicycle celebration session in the city center

19.00 - 22.00

Bike parade

Technical visits - Outdoor sessions

SUBTHEMES:

09.00 - 10.15

10.15 - 10.45

10.45 - 11.45

12.00 - 13.00

13.00 - 14.15

14.15 - 15.45

15.45 - 16.15

16.15 - 17.30

19.00 - 23.00

PLENARY 4: Redefining public space

Coffee break

7.1 Lessons learned from implementing low traffic zones across Europe 	7.2 Current challenges in cycle logistics 	7.3 Countering or including the loud minority? 	7.4 Better rural mobility: Bringing active travel to low density areas 	7.5 TEN-T: Integrating cycling into large infrastructure projects 	7.6. Eurocities: The role of cycling in a multimodal sustainable urban transport system
8.1 Find your partners: A project proposals match-making session 	8.2 From research to practice: Cost-benefit analysis for cycling 	8.3 UITP: From competition to complementarity- reinforcing public transport with active and micro mobility 	8.4 Creating a shared mindset to deal with bikelash 	8.5 National strategies: Translating policy into action 	8.6 When a fire starts to burn: Creating community mobility rituals to support cycling culture and drive policy change

Lunch

9.1 Cycling advocacy organisations: Cross-sectoral partnerships for greater impact 	9.2 CIE: How to build a successful bike sharing scheme? An interactive workshop by experts for experts 	9.3 The devil is in the detail: When infrastructure standards meet ambitions 	9.4 30 km/h zones – from policy to implementation 	9.5 Enabling the multimodal journey with MaaS and mobility hubs 	9.6 Bike to work: Getting commuters to saddle up!
---	---	---	--	--	--

Coffee break

PLENARY 5: Creating mobility systems of the future now

Networking dinner party

Technical visits - Outdoor sessions

SUBTHEMES:

Strong leadership for action

Redefining public space

Working together towards equitable environments

Creating mobility systems of the future now

Towards climate neutral economies

S4C Academic sessions

09.00 - 10.00

 10.1 The guts and insights to transform car-oriented places into bicycle-minded quality areas	 10.2 Better together: Making citizen participation work	 10.3 Not an end in itself: Technologies that impact cycling	 10.4 On my own feet: Empowering children to move around	 10.5 Welcome to the new age: Cities across the globe in transformation	 10.6 Bicycle parking: One size does not fit all
--	--	--	--	---	--

10.15 - 11.15

 11.1 Pushing for cycling: Leadership for action	 11.2 Changing perspectives to build a vision	 11.3 Beyond national horizons: When do bicycle streets work?	 11.4 From research to practice: Working together towards equitable environments	 11.5 CIE: Back to the future: Connected cycling for a better experience	 11.6 Large events: Grasping the opportunity for cycling promotion
--	---	---	--	--	--

11.15 - 11.45

Coffee break

11.45 - 13.00

PLENARY 6: Strong leadership for action

13.00 - 13.30

CLOSING CEREMONY

13.30 - 14.30

Lunch

SUBTHEMES:

 Strong leadership for action	 Redefining public space	 Working together towards equitable environments	 Creating mobility systems of the future now	 Towards climate neutral economies	 S4C Academic sessions
--	--	--	--	--	--